TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

On this Labor Day weekend, when we recognize all those who work — in whatever way they can — to provide for their families, their communities, and this nation, we also celebrate the World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation, praying that together we can work to ensure that the world God made can be enjoyed by future generations for centuries to come. Let us praise God for this wonderful world and the opportunity to work in it.

NOTEWORTHY NEWS

Dearest St. Bernadette parishioners!

I trust that everyone is enjoying a restful summer and has had some memorable vacation time with family and friends. I look forward to welcoming back the members of the St. Bernadette Music Ministry. I love to listen to the beautiful voices I hear in the congregation as I sit at the organ in the choir loft and I really appreciate the wonderful community support that you give to help enhance our liturgies each week. We have been blessed with the talents of Jennifer Burnett, Rose Marie Erl, Steve Clement and Susan Borio to lead us in song this summer. As always, everyone (from ages 4-144) is invited to join us as we praise and worship our God in song. If you or anyone in your family is contemplating joining the Adult Choir, the Cherub Choir, the St. Bernadette School Choir, or Adult Guitar Group, this is the year. In addition, if you play a musical instrument and are in high school or older, please come and see Dottie Toomey in the choir loft any Saturday after the 4:30pm Mass or Sunday after the 9:00am or 11:00am Masses. The rehearsal schedule will be as follows:

Adult Choir - Wednesday, 9/11 7:30pm (choir loft)

Cherub Choir (preK 4-2nd gr) Sunday 9/15 8:15am (BVM altar)

School Choir (gr. 3rd-8th) Wed/ Thurs 9/11 and 9/12 7:30am -8am (loft)

Adult Guitar Group ☐ please see Dottie Toomey or Kathy Markopoulos.

God has truly blessed us with many gifts and He wants us to share them with our family and community. Always keep a song in your heart.

Musically yours,
Dottie Toomey
Parish Music Director

THE PASTOR'S COLUMN

On this Labor Day weekend most of us take a break from what we refer to as our "jobs" in order to rest and re-create. We are invited to honor human work and all human workers. It is a unique secular holiday with profound Christian potential. For Christians, Labor Day invites us to examine how we view our own labor in the light of what the Scriptures and the teaching Church proclaims about the dignity of all human work, no matter what kind, precisely because it is done by human persons who are created in the Image and Likeness of God.

John Paul II emphasized the need for work to be rescued "from the logic of profit, from the lack of solidarity, from the fever of earning ever more, from the desire to accumulate and consume." When the focus of work becomes subjected to what he called "inhuman wealth", he said, it becomes a "seductive and merciless idol." That rescue occurs when we "return to the austere words of the Divine Master: 'For what does it profit a man if he gains the whole world and loses or forfeits himself?'"

He also unveiled for his listeners an important understanding of the Incarnation, that Jesus, the "Divine Worker of Nazareth" also reminds us that 'life is more than food' and that work is for man, not man for work. What makes a life great is not the entity of gain, nor the type of profession, or the level of the career. Man is worth infinitely more than the goods he produces or possesses."

Let us ask the Holy Spirit to renew our minds concerning all human work. Jesus now lives in us and we now live in Him, through the Holy Spirit. He has made it possible for us to begin to live our entire life differently, every single day, through the grace which is poured out through the Holy Spirit. We are living in an age which desperately needs a vibrant living Christian witness of the dignity, meaning and true value of all human work - one which is rooted in a rediscovery of the dignity of the human person. Let's offer it to them by living a Christian approach to work in our own daily lives.
